

Program	Outcomes
B.Com.	Students will be able to analyse the commercial, Economic and Environmental aspects of different service and manufacturing sectors at local, national and International level.
	Students will be prepared for opportunities created in new era in management horizons and sensitizing them towards social need.
	Students will be able to inculcate Communication, Legal, Computer, Analytical and promotional skills.
	Students will have appropriate skills to make them competent and provide themselves self-employment with Entrepreneurial skills with Environmental consciousness.
	Students will be acquainted with practical approach to accounting procedures, methods and techniques for employment opportunities in field of finance.