

- This program would result in the output of knowledge & skill ready professionals for banking sector, insurance sector, finance companies, logistics & transport companies, manufacturing industries & other allied sectors where knowledge of financial management is required.
- Decision making abilities of students at managerial and senior levels will be developed at the end of the program
- Students stand to get knowledge of varied specializations in accounting, finance, banking, costing alongwith grooming in lines of managerial thought process
- Students stand to gain through systematic pedagogy and elaborate spread of various subjects, all round knowledge of hardcore financial management as well as other allied areas like business law, corporate law, project management, financial planning, environment sciences, etc
- Students will be able to acquire and apply quantitative & qualitative skills and knowledge to further their careers in jobs and businesses.